Chapter One

Foreword

National Immigration Agency (NIA) edits this manual especially for civil air and sea carriers' reference, to help the carriers better understand whether the passenger boarded eligible to enter R.O.C. (Taiwan) and avoid monetary penalty due to passengers without proper entry documents.

According to Paragraph 2, article 47 of the Immigration Act, we forbid the captain of an aircraft or a vessel, or the carrier to use the aircraft, vessel or other means of transport to carry passengers without proper entry documents. And the violator is subject to a monetary penalty of NTD 20,000 to NTD 100,000 per person in accordance with the Immigration Act (see Appendix Three for relative regulation and penalty). Carriers may contact the immigration at the ports of passenger's destination if there are any questions concerning documents explained in this manual (see Appendix Two for contact telephone and fax numbers).

According to different applicable laws, entry passengers to R.O.C. (Taiwan) can basically be divided into four types: R.O.C. Nationals, Hong Kong / Macao residents, Mainland Chinese, and Aliens. For details of relative regulations, please refer to the Immigration Act, Act Governing Relations with Hong Kong and Macao, Act Governing Relations between the People of the Taiwan Area and the Mainland China Area, the Passport Act, and other subordinate laws. In this manual, there will be explanation of documents or requirements for entry / transfer passengers of these four types.

Chapter Two

Entry of R.O.C. (Taiwan) Nationals

R.O.C. (Taiwan) Nationals are divided into National with Household Registration (NHR) and National without Household Registration (NWOHR).

The simplest way to identify whether the passenger is a NHR or a NWOHR is to check his/her R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport. The R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport that a NWOHR holds is without ID number on the bio-data page (see Picture 2 and Picture 8). However, please note that, for the passenger who can provide any identification document with R.O.C. (Taiwan) ID number, such as ID card, Household Certificate, or Household Certificate Transcript, even though the R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport that the passenger holds is with no ID number, he/she will be regarded as a NHR. The relative entry documents and requirements are explained below:

1. Nationals with Household Registration (NHR)

(1) Entry with R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport

NHR only need a valid passport for entry, and no other documents required. The samples of R.O.C. (Taiwan) passports are shown as Picture 1 and Picture 2 below:

Picture 1: Covers of R.O.C. (Taiwan) passports (Diplomatic, Official, and Standard)

Picture 2: Bio-data pages of passports for NHR

Check Points:

- a. Personal ID number on the bio-data page, as ① in Picture 2.
- b. The passport should be valid upon entry, as ② in Picture 2.

(2)Entry with R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport (No Personal ID number on the bio-data page). If the passenger can provide any identification document with Personal ID numbers, such as R.O.C. (Taiwan) ID card, Household Certificate, Household Certificate Transcript, etc., then he / she will be regarded as a NHR, and can enter with a R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport.

Check Points:

- a. The passport should be valid upon entry, as ② in Picture 2.
- b. The passenger has a document with Personal ID numbers, such as R.O.C. (Taiwan) ID card, Household Certificate, Household Certificate Transcript, etc.

(3) Entry with Entry Certificate.

NHR who has lost his/her passport or his/her passport has expired, and not able to renew, should apply for an Entry Certificate at any R.O.C. (Taiwan) overseas missions prior to entry. The sample of the Entry Certificate is shown as Picture 3.

Check Points:

- a. The certificate should be valid upon entry, as ① in Picture 3.
- b. No passport is needed. The holder should apply for an Entry Permit upon entry.

Exception:

1.If the above passenger locates in Mainland China Area, he/she will not be able to obtain Entry Certificate in time. In these cases, the carrier should apply for permission with an application form (as Picture 4) to the immigration at any designated port of R.O.C. (Taiwan). Only with the permission can carriers carry those passengers to R.O.C. (Taiwan). The application form is downloadable at Appendix Four (see Appendix Two for contact phone and fax numbers).

2.If the above passenger locates in countries or areas where there are no R.O.C. (Taiwan) overseas missions, he/she cannot obtain Entry Certificate in time. In these cases, the carrier should report to the immigration at any designated port of R.O.C. (Taiwan). Only with the permission can carriers carry those passengers to R.O.C. (Taiwan).

(4) Entry with Entry & Exit Permit (via Kinmen, Matsu, and Penghu).

NHR with his/her household registration in Kinmen, Matsu, and Penghu (the offshore islands of R.O.C.) can travel to or return from Mainland China Area via the assigned ports in Kinmen, Matsu, and Penghu with Entry & Exit Permit (as Picture 5 and Picture 6), no passport is needed. Holders of such permit are not allowed to exit or enter R.O.C. (Taiwan) via any other ports. As of June 2015, a PVC card style of Entry & Exit Permit is introduced, as shown in Picture 6.

Picture 5: Entry & Exit Permit (multiple use, via Kinmen, Matsu, and Penghu only. Please look for Chinese characters “（金馬澎）” suggesting Kinmen, Matsu, and Penghu)

Picture 6: Entry & Exit Permit (multiple use, via Kinmen, Matsu, and Penghu) only Please look for Chinese characters “（金馬澎）” suggesting Kinmen, Matsu, and Penghu)

Check Points:

- a. Type of permit: 臺灣地區（金馬澎）多次入出境證, as ① in Picture 5 and Picture 6.
- b. The permit should remain valid upon entry, as ② in Picture 5 and Picture 6. If the booklet permit has expired, please look for extension stamp on page 32(the last page), as ③ in Picture 5.
- c. No passport is needed. Permit holders are not allowed to exit or enter via any ports other than those in Kinmen, Matsu, and Penghu.

2. Nationals without Household Registration (NWOHR)

The covers of R.O.C. (Taiwan) passports issued to NWOHR are the same as standard R.O.C. (Taiwan) passports. However, the bio-data page of the R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport that NWOHR hold has NO Personal ID number, which is the simplest way to identify NWOHR. A NWOHR passport holder without pairing any documents listed below will be refused entry.

One must enter R.O.C. (Taiwan) with a NWOHR passport pairing with one of the following documents: (1) Entry Permit(入國許可), (2) R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate with Entry Permit(臺灣地區居留證 臨人字入國許可), (3) A NWOHR passport can be replaced by a foreign passport, pairing with R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate with Entry Permit(臺灣地區居留證 臨人字入國許可) and Multiple Entry & Exit Permit, (4) Added Signing of Overseas Resident in the passport or Identity Letter of the Overseas Resident issued by Overseas Compatriot Affairs Commission (OCAC), or (5) Certificate of Alien Registration / Alien Registration Card(long-term (F-2) or permanent residency (F-5)) of South Korea. (6)Under certain circumstances, a NWOHR can also enter R.O.C. (Taiwan) with Entry & Exit Permit (PRN Certificate Transcript or Resident Certificate Transcript, 入境證及定居證副本) singularly.

Picture 7: Cover of R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport (for NWOHR):

Picture 8: R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport (for NWOHR): NO Personal ID number on biodata page

(1) Entry with R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport (for NWOHR) and Entry Permit:

With only a R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport, NWOHR is NOT allowed to enter R.O.C. (Taiwan). The passport can be used along with an Entry Permit affixed on it. A Sample of the permit is as Picture 9. Please note that the passenger holds a valid passport affixed on an expired Entry Permit will still be allowed entry; nevertheless he/ she needs to apply for a temporary entry permit to the immigration upon arrival.

Picture 9: Entry Permit

Check Points:

- A R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport for NWOHR bears no ID number, as ① in Picture 8. The passport should be used along with an affixed Entry Permit.
- The passport should be valid upon entry, as ② in Picture 8.
- An Entry Permit should be affixed on the passport (as Picture 9). The date of expire is listed as ① in Picture 9. The passenger with a valid passport affixed on an expired Entry Permit will still be allowed entry.

(2) Entry with R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport (for NWOHR) and R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate:

With only a R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport, NWOHR is NOT allowed to enter R.O.C. (Taiwan). The passport can be used along with a R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate with Entry Permit (with Chinese characters “臺灣地區居留證 臨人字入國許可”). A Sample of the certificate is as Picture 10. Please note that the passenger holds a valid passport and an expired certificate will still be allowed entry, nevertheless he/she needs to apply for a Temporary Entry Permit upon arrival.

Picture 10: R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate

Check Points:

- a. Type of permit: 臺灣地區居留證 臨人字入國許可, as ① in Picture 10. Such permit goes along with a NWOHR passport.
- b. The passport should be valid upon entry, as ② in Picture 8.
- c. “MULTIPLE RE-ENTRY PERMIT” should be in the column of Type, as ① in Picture 10.
- d. The passenger holds a valid passport and an expired certificate will still be allowed entry, but he /she needs to apply for a temporary entry permit upon arrival.

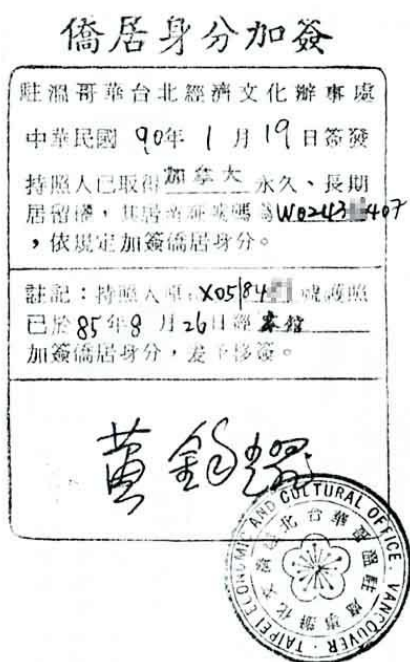

(3)Entry with a foreign passport and R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate:

A NWOHR passport can be replaced by a foreign passport. That is to say, A valid foreign passport with a valid R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate with “MULTIPLE RE-ENTRY PERMIT”(臺灣地區居留證 臨人字入國許可) should be treated as our NWOHR. In most cases, the resident certificate pairs with Multiple Entry & Exit Permit. This kind of passenger should also apply for a Temporary Entry Permit upon arrival.

(4)Entry with R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport (for NWOHR) and added signing or identity letter:

With only a R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport, NWOHR is NOT allowed to enter R.O.C. (Taiwan) unless there is an Added Signing of Overseas Resident stamped on the inner page (as Picture 11) or the passenger has an “identify letter of overseas resident” or an “identity letter of overseas Chinese” (as Picture 12 and Picture 13) issued by Overseas Compatriot Affairs Commission (OCAC). This kind of passenger should also apply for a Temporary Entry Permit upon arrival. New version of identity letter for overseas Chinese (as Picture 13) should be valid when applying for a Temporary Entry Permit, as ① in Picture 13.

(5)Entry with R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport (for NWOHR) and Certificate of Alien Registration (long-term residence: F-2 / permanent residence: F-5) of the Republic of Korea (South Korea)

With only a R.O.C. (Taiwan) passport, NWOHR is NOT allowed to enter R.O.C. (Taiwan). It should be used along with a valid Certificate of Alien Registration (long-term residence: F-2 / permanent residence: F-5) of South Korea. Samples of the certificate are as Picture 14 (new version is blue; and the category is marked F-2) and Picture 15. This kind of passenger should also apply for a Temporary Entry Permit upon arrival.

Chapter Three

Entry of Hong Kong/Macao Residents

Hong Kong / Macao residents (referring to the holders of Hong Kong, Macao, or British National Overseas passport) are required to enter R.O.C. (Taiwan) with a valid Hong Kong, Macao, or British National Overseas passport (as Picture 16), an Entry & Exit Permit, and a departure ticket of confirmed booking. All passports pairing with above mentioned Entry & Exit Permit, should be valid for at least 3 months. For those who have obtained R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate, the departure ticket is not mandatory as an entry requirement.

Picture 16: Hong Kong, British National Overseas, and Macao passports

All types of Entry & Exit Permit issued to Hong Kong/Macao residents are listed as follows: (1) Temporary Entry Permit, (2) Single Entry & Exit Permit, (3) Single Exit & Entry Permit, (4) Multiple Entry & Exit Permit, (5) Multiple Resident Entry & Exit Permit, (6) R.O.C.(Taiwan) Entry-Permit Online Application, (7) Entry Certificate and (8) Entry Permit— Overseas Chinese Students of Hong Kong/Macao. The relative regulations are explained below:

1. Temporary Entry Permit

While holding a Hong Kong, Macao, or British National Overseas passport, one may apply for a Temporary Entry & Exit Permit (臨時入境停留通知單 locally called “landing-visa”) after landing. It can be only issued under the following circumstances:

- A. The Place of Birth indicated on the bio-page of the Hong Kong, Macao, or British National Overseas passport should be Hong Kong or Macao.
- B. If the Place of Birth on the passport is not Hong Kong or Macao, then the passenger should have actually entered and exited R.O.C. (Taiwan) as a Hong Kong / Macao resident once.
- C. Such passport should be valid for at least 3 months upon entry.
- D. A departure ticket is mandatory.
- E. After landing, passengers must apply this permit from NIA first. Passengers must use this document together with above mentioned passports for immigration clearance.

For condition B, carriers can inquire (by fax) the immigration of destination using an inquiry form (as Picture 17). The form is available at Appendix Four.

Chapter Four

Entry of Mainland Chinese

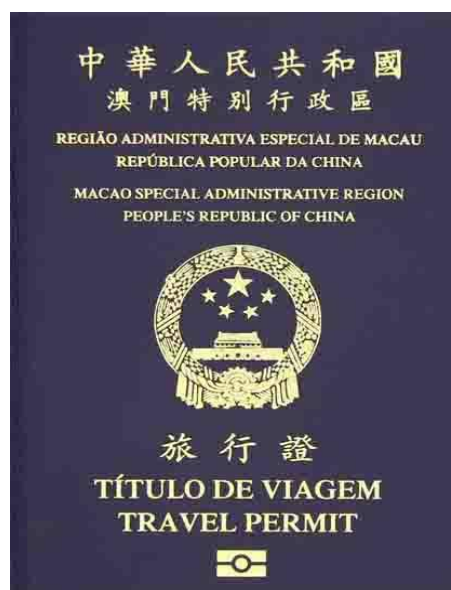

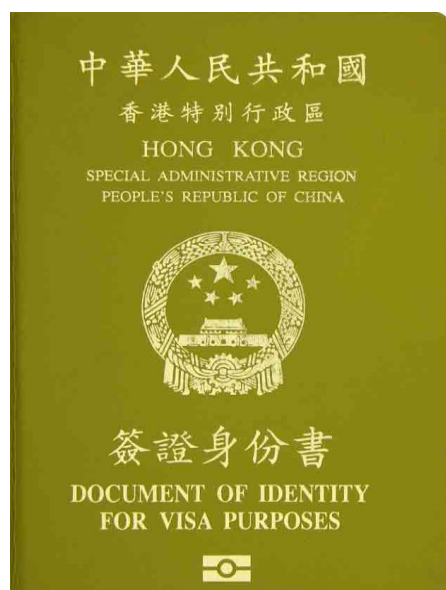

Mainland Chinese (referring to the holders of PRC passports) can enter R.O.C. (Taiwan) with an Entry & Exit Permit, a PRC passport or a Travel Pass to Taiwan (Picture 27), and a departure ticket of confirmed booking. PRC passport or Travel Pass to Taiwan must be valid for more than 6 months, except for those bearing R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate. Return ticket is not an entry requirement for those bearing R.O.C. (Taiwan) Resident Certificate and for conditions stipulated in other regulations. Extra regulations will be put under the column of “Notes”, passengers with such Entry & Exit Permit have to meet extra requirements.

Entry & Exit Permits issued in different purposes, may have to cooperate with different documents. Please pay extra attention to the column of “Notes”. If 大陸地區人民往來臺灣地區通行證 is recorded, this would suggest only the top 2 types in Picture 28 are applicable. If 大陸地區旅行證件 is recorded, this would suggest all types in Picture 28 are applicable. In other words, 大陸地區旅行證件 allows more options than 大陸地區人民往來臺灣地區通行證. Furthermore, 香港、澳門核發之旅行文件 are the types in Picture 27.

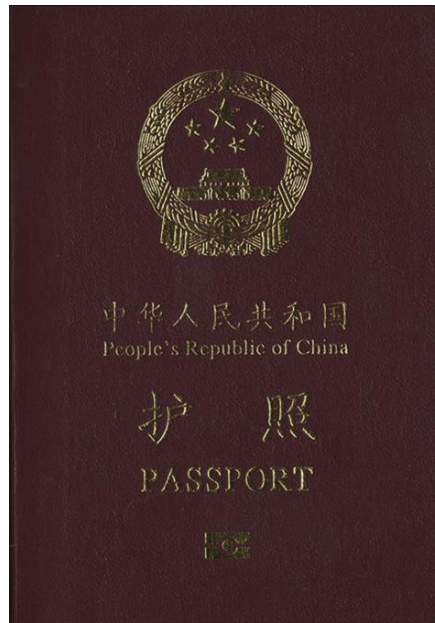

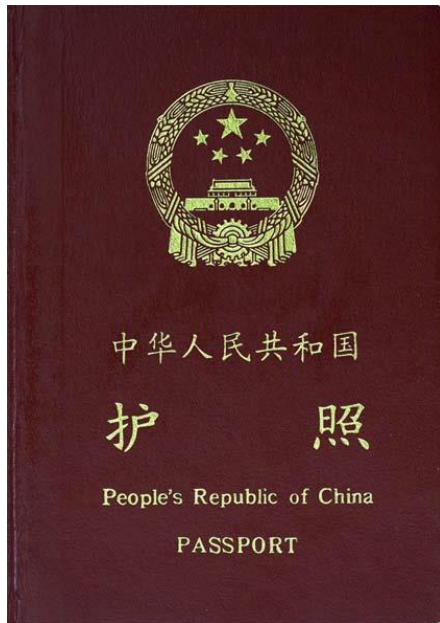

To understand these documents, proper Chinese reading ability is highly recommended.

There are 5 types of Entry & Exit Permits issued to Mainland Chinese. They are: (1) Single Entry & Exit Permit, (2) Entry & Exit Permit with Added Signing, (3) Multiple Entry & Exit Permit, (4) Multiple Resident Entry & Exit Permit, and (5) Entry Restricted to and Stay in Kinmen, Matsu, or Penghu. The explanation for each type is elaborated below.

※The eligibilities, requirements, and other related items regarding application for visa-exempt entries and landing visas, please refer to the website of Bureau of Consular Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs at <http://www.boca.gov.tw/>

1. Visas

There are four types of R.O.C. (Taiwan) visas: Visitor Visa, Resident Visa, Diplomatic Visa, and Courtesy Visa. The samples are as Picture 41. From January 2016.

eVisa application is limited to following criteria:

(1) Nationals of the following countries are eligible for an eVisa when they meet relevant criteria: Bahrain, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Burkina Faso, Colombia, Dominica, Ecuador, Kiribati, Kosovo, Kuwait, Mauritius, Montenegro, Oman, Panama, Peru, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Solomon Islands, Turkey, and United Arab Emirates.

(2) Nationals from all foreign countries who are invited to attend international conferences, sporting events, trade fairs or other activities in Taiwan organized, co-organized or sponsored by ROC central government agencies are also eligible for an eVisa. (Nationals of North Korea only for the purpose of attending sports events are eligible for an eVisa.)

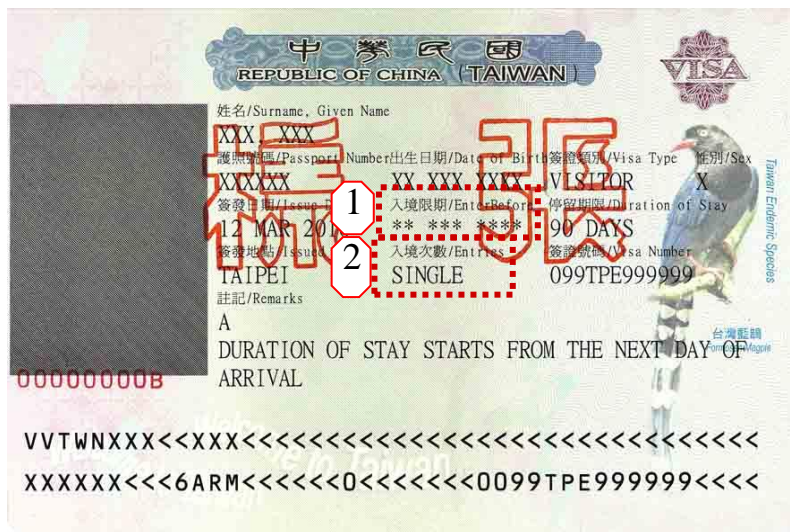

(3) Tourist groups from India, Indonesia, Vietnam, Myanmar, Cambodia, and Laos under “Project for Simplifying Visa Regulations for High-end Group Tourists from Southeast Asian Countries” are eligible for an eVisa.

(4) Nationals of India, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, Nepal, Bhutan, Pakistan, and Iran for the purpose of conducting business at the recommendation of local offices of the Taiwan External Trade Development Council (TAITRA) are eligible for an eVisa.

Visa holders must present a valid foreign passport upon entry. eVisa holders are required to present a paper copy of the eVisa at the immigration clearance. With specific type of eVisa, entry date is specified on the visa itself. Such eVisa is only valid on that day. Extra attention is needed on such type of visa holders.

※ The eligibilities, requirements, and other related items regarding application for visa-exempt entries and landing visas, please refer to the website of Bureau of Consular Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs at <http://www.boca.gov.tw/>

3. Responsibilities of the Carrier

The Responsibilities of the Carrier and of the Captain of the Aircraft / Vessel and the Penalties for Violation

Chapter 8 (Responsibilities of the Captain of an Aircraft, Responsibilities of the Captain of a Vessel, and Responsibilities of Transport Service Proprietor. Article 41 to Article 50) and Chapter 11 (Penalties. Article 82 and Article 83) regulate the responsibilities of the carrier and of the captain of the Aircraft / Vessel and the penalties for violation. The relative articles are cited as follows:

Article 47 The captain of an aircraft or a vessel, or the proprietor of other means of transport service shall assist staff of National Immigration Agency when they are performing their official duties in accordance with the present Act and other laws and decrees concerned.

The captain of an aircraft or vessel, or transport service proprietor stated in the preceding Paragraph shall not use his aircraft, vessel, or other means of transport to carry passengers without documents needed to enter the State. This provision, however, does not apply to a national from a nation and with the consent of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, this national is granted a Landing Visa or a Visa Exemption.

Article 48 Before an aircraft, a vessel, or any other means of transport arrives at or departs from an airport or a seaport, its captain, or transport service proprietor shall notify National Immigration Agency in advance of the time of its scheduled arrival and departure, a list of the names of its flight crew or sailors, and passengers, and of other matters concerned. The list of the names of the passengers shall be divided into the columns of entry, exit and transit respectively.

Article 49 The captain of an aircraft or a vessel, or the transport service proprietor stated in the preceding Article shall report flight crew, sailors, or passengers to National Immigration Agency if they have no passports, flight crew identification documents, seaman service books or have been involved in various illegal matters, such as being deported or denied entry by other countries or illegal entry.

When an aircraft, a vessel, or any other means of transport departs from the State, its captain, or transport service proprietor shall send National Immigration Agency a list of names of the flight crew or sailors, and passengers, who have entered the State to make a temporary stay.

Article 50 The captain of an aircraft or a vessel, or the transport service proprietor shall be responsible for arranging transport on the day in question or of the earliest run to deport passengers, sailors, or flight crew on board his aircraft, his vessel, or other means of transport, if they meet one of the following circumstances:

1. Have been banned from entering the State pursuant to Article 7 or Paragraph 1, Article 18.
2. Have made a temporary entry into the State pursuant to Paragraph 1 of Article 19.
3. Have stayed for overnight lodging pursuant to Paragraph 1 of Article 20.
4. Have no documents needed to enter the State pursuant to Paragraph 2 of Article 47.

During the time in which the people enumerated in the Subparagraphs of the preceding Paragraph are waiting for deportation, National Immigration Agency shall designate shelters and/or be responsible for looking after them. Except for the circumstance set forth in Subparagraph 1, the concerned transport service proprietor shall pay for the related expenses.

Article 82 A person who violates Paragraph 2 of Article 47 by using an aircraft, a vessel, or any other means of transport to carry passengers without documents needed to enter the State shall be fined between NT$ 20,000 and NT$ 100,000 for each passenger carried.

A person who assists another person in committing the offenses set forth in the preceding Paragraph shall be subject to the same punishments.

Article 83 The captain of an aircraft or a vessel, or the transport service proprietor, who violates one of Paragraph 1 of Article 47 and Articles 48 to 50 without justifiable reasons, shall be fined between NT$ 20,000 and NT$ 100,000 for each single violation.
